10th Annual N.A.U.I. Basic Standard Dress Diving Course 2018

Participants will learn the skills and knowledge to carry out the duties of a standard dress diver, diving tender and supervisor. Safety divers will be in attendance at all times whilst participants are diving.

A training booklet and checklists will be provided to all participants. The booklet contains information on how to obtain, maintain and dive standard dress diving equipment so that participants can safely put their own standard dress equipment together.

Participants should book accommodation as early as possible (see suggested accom. list below) as it is a holiday weekend; please plan to arrive in Portland on Friday June 8th, our 'meet and greet' social starts at 5:30pm until 7:00pm. Formal Classroom instruction will begin Saturday morning at 8am and we aim to be completed no later than 12pm on Monday June 11th.

Please bring lots of warm clothes such as thermals, hats, gloves, scarves, coats, flannels etc. Portland's weather at this time of the year can be cold, windy and rainy. The course is not weather permitted as we dive in the shelter of the harbour.

Divers may bring photography equipment for personal pictures on the surface and underwater.

NAUI certification cards and certificates are issued after participants successful completion of the course. The certifications will be mailed to you.

Portland is in a very scenic area of Victoria, with historical locations nearby and walking tracks. It is a great place to visit anytime. It is located on the south-west coast, approximately four hours drive from Melbourne.

For further course information and to book your place; please contact Leslie or Kathy on 03 55236 392 OR email: lesliezelenc@profdivers.com.

Please complete the application form and return with your deposit to ensure your place.
